Letter from the President

Dear Parents and Friends of the Graduates,

Welcome, and thank you for being our guests at this virtual graduation ceremony. Though the current pandemic has altered our plans, we remain steadfast in our desire to worship the Lord and honor our graduates through this event.

The graduates appreciate your viewing and thank you for your prayers, support, and encouragement during their time at Ethnos360 Bible Institute.

As a result of their faithful studies at EBI, these graduates possess an understanding of the foundational truths of the Bible. Each one knows Christ more intimately and is equipped by the power of Christ to effectively minister for Him whether home or abroad.

Your graduate has become like family to us and together with you, we have been privileged to play a part in preparing them to serve God.

It is with confidence that we graduate these students, celebrating the changes that God has accomplished in each life. Again, thank you for your support of them now and in the days to come.

By His Grace,

Ron Lindsey

Challenging Missions Quotes

"The ultimate issue addressed by missions is that God's glory is dishonored among the peoples of the world. That is the ultimate outrage." John Piper, pastor and mission mobilizer

"God takes great pleasure in manifesting His presence and pouring out His power on those who will dare to align radically their purposes with His for the nations." Steve Childers, mission mobilizer

"Unless there is an element of risk in our exploits for God, there is no need for faith." Hudson Taylor, missionary to China

"To win for the Lamb that was slain, the reward of His sufferings" Moravians, mission movement

"To stop or linger anywhere, even to repeat the rejected message, so long as there are souls beyond that have never heard it, is at least unjust to those who are still in absolute darkness." A.T. Pierson, Student Volunteer Movement founder

"If a commission by an earthly king is considered a honor, how can a commission by a Heavenly King be considered a sacrifice?" David Livingstone, missionary to Africa

"Risks are not to be evaluated in terms of the probability of success, but in the value of the goal." Ralph Winter, mission mobilizer

"The Gospel is not how to get people to heaven. The Gospel is how people get to God." John Piper, pastor and mission mobilizer

"I have but one passion: It is He, it is He alone. The world is the field and the field is the world; and henceforth that country shall be my home where I can be most used in winning souls for Christ." Count Nicolaus von Zinzendorf, founder of the Moravians

"He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose." Jim Elliot, missionary to Ecuador

"We must be global Christians with a global vision because our God is a global God." John R. Stott, missions mobilizer

"The spirit of Christ is the spirit of missions. The nearer we get to Him, the more intensely missionary we become." Henry Martyn, missionary to India

"No reserve. No retreat. No regrets." William Borden, missionary to China

"Sympathy is no substitute for action." David Livingstone, missionary to Africa

"The Great Commission is not an option to be considered; it is a command to be obeyed." Hudson Taylor, missionary to China.

"We talk of the Second Coming; half the world has never heard of the first." Oswald J. Smith, missions mobilizer

"Some wish to live within the sound of a chapel bell; I wish to run a rescue mission within a yard of hell." C.T. Studd, missionary to China, India, and Africa

"God is pursuing with omnipotent passion a worldwide purpose of gathering joyful worshippers for Himself from every tribe and tongue and people and nation. He has an inexhaustible enthusiasm for the supremacy of His name among the nations. Therefore, let us bring our affections into line with His, and, for the sake of His name, let us renounce the quest for worldly comforts and join His global purpose." John Piper, pastor and mission mobilizer

"His authority on earth allows us to dare to go to all the nations. His authority in heaven gives us our only hope of success. And His presence with us leaves us no other choice." John R. Stott, missions mobilizer.

"Before the world, aye, before the sleepy, lukewarm, faithless, nambypamby Christian world, we will dare to trust our God, we will venture our all for Him, we will live and we will die for Him, and we will do it with His joy unspeakable singing aloud in our hearts." C.T. Studd, missionary to China, India, and Africa

"A soft drink company has done a better job getting brown sugar water to the nations than the church of Jesus Christ has done in getting the Gospel to them." David Platt, pastor and missions mobilizer

Class Project

Preparing to be church planters in Northern Canada

Jordan and Jessica Martin—working among the Inuit people in Nunavik QC.

Mason (11), Nolan (9), Liam (7), Evrit (5), and Asher (1)

For their class project, the senior class of 2020 has been privileged and honored to financially support, pray for, and encourage Jordan and Jessica Martin, recent graduates of Ethnos 360 Bible Institute, Waukesha.

After the Martins finished their culture and linguistic studies, the Lord led them, with their five sons, to Puvirnituk, Quebec, a community of 1700 people. The Inuit people live in fear and confusion and are captive to animism and syncretism. Drug and alcohol abuse are rampant, and child sex trafficking is not uncommon. Jordan shared that the people's response to the gospel is "cautious, reserved and apprehensive". The darkness is both physical and spiritual.

Since the community is remote and isolated, the only access is by plane. Literally everything must be flown in (all supplies, health, schooling, food etc.) which is very costly. This is where the senior class desired to give a helping hand. They organized many activities such as bake sales, auctions, president for a day, and just plain generous giving to raise a total of $3000+. Sadly, their fund raising was cut short due to Covid19, but they are thrilled that they had a small part in tundra evangelism.

The Martins had to leave their mission station due to the Covid19 pandemic, but are so anxious to return. Please pray that they would be able to return soon and that the Lord's love will spread across that region as more people become interested in this very neglected field.

"We thought it would be super neat if we could be a part of individuals working on the mission field as we prayed for them, stayed in contact through updates and emails, and ask how we could bless them financially."
—Reece Field—

*“And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses,
commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”*

2 Timothy 2:2
